

CALL FOR ART AND CRAFT VENDORS
URBAN SCRAWL II, SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 27th, 2008
F.A.D., FRANKLINTON ARTS DISTRICT
DEADLINE: AUG. 31, 2008

The Franklinton Arts District is currently looking for artists and craftspersons to sell their wares in our second annual Urban Scrawl event. From T-Shirts and posters, to jewelery and glass, we want to give you the opportunity to sell your stuff!

Urban Scrawl is a one day festival that features the live creation of temporary murals by artists, food & art vendors, performances by musicians, and a skateboarding competition. The event is held in Dodge Park, Columbus' first skatepark.

The Franklinton Arts District is a group of creative and diverse people committed to fostering a vibrant arts community in historic Franklinton by providing bold and innovative opportunities to artists and art enthusiasts.

ENTRY PROCEDURE

For consideration, vendors must send a CD with between 5-10 examples of current items in (JPEG, TIFF, or PSD format) labeled with your name and contact information.

Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

ACCEPTANCE FEE

Upon acceptance participating vendors will have to pay a $25 non-refundable fee to FAD.
